THERE will be four Eclipses this year; two of the SUN, and two of the MOON, as follows, viz.

I. The first will be of the SUN, March 4th, oh. 11m. in the morning; invisible to all north of the Equator; but visible and total in the Great Southern Ocean, in long. 17° East of Portor, and lat. 58° South. Moon's lat. 4° South.

II. The second will be a visible Eclipse of the MOON, March 19th, and by calculation as follows:

Digits eclipsed, $5^{\circ} 10'$ on the Moon's North Limb.

III. The third will be an Eclipse of the SUN, August 28th, 2h. 16m. in the morning; invisible to the inhabitants of the United States.

IV. The fourth and last will be an Eclipse of the MOON, September 11th, part of which only will be visible.

	H. M.

* * * There will be, this year, a Transit of MERCURY over the Sun's Disk, (or Mercury will pass over the face of the Sun) on the 9th day of November, in the morning. The ingress, or beginning, will happen before sunrise; but the egress, or end, may be seen; as the planet will be more than five hours passing over the Sun's Disk. Mercury's lat. $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ South, at the beginning, and $3\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ North, at the end.

N. B. Those who are desirous of viewing this curious phenomenon, and have not the advantage of instruments, may possibly discover it (if the air be clear) through a piece of smoked glass.

CURE FOR THE RING-WORM.

SIR PAUL JODDREL, from his skill in Botany, has made a discovery which is likely to prove of the greatest importance to the health and ease of the Europeans in India; and will tend to the extirpation of that cruel and most tormenting of all maladies, the Ring-Worm; and the remedy is as simple as it is efficacious. It consists in nothing more than a frequent embrocation, or friction of the parts where the eruption prevails, with common Mushroom Ketchup. This remedy, simple as it appears, has never been known to fail in removing the Ring-Worm, Itch, or any other cutaneous eruption, after every nostrum has failed.

DIRECTIONS FOR MARINERS.

MR. WILLIAM LORD, of Stonington-Point, has erected an iron spear, about 13 feet long, with a white vane on the top, upon the Rock of Latimer, in Fisher's-Island-Sound. The deepest channel is to the northward of the rock. This gentleman has it in contemplation, if suitable encouragement should be given by gentlemen from the eastward and westward (who are owners of navigation, and are constantly passing the Sound) to erect a spear upon what is called The Tail of Watch-Hill-Reef—Another upon Katumacut-Rock, upon the same Reef—One upon Ellis'-Reef, which lies off Ram-Island, and is almost in the middle of the Sound. These rocks are seldom, any of them, out of water, and much in the way of Coasters up and down the Sound, who are unacquainted.

This Society consists of such as have actually navigated the seas near or beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or round Cape-Horn, as masters or commanders of vessels, and such as have been factors, or supercargoes of vessels, employed in the East-India trade. It was instituted for the purpose of collecting together such observations, discoveries, books, papers, charts, and valuable publications in every language, as might tend to facilitate the navigation of the Eastern and Southern Oceans. Every member returning from sea is bound to present to the Society an abstract of the journal of his voyage, and to communicate in writing his observations of the bearings and distances of all capes and headlands; the latitude and longitude of islands, rocks and shoals; unusual occurrences; storms and accidents; with all other observations, which he may judge useful to be recorded. The Museum of the Society already exhibits a handsome collection of curiosities.

The above Institution, though yet in its infancy, has afforded the means of relief to many necessitous persons, among others, whose feelings would have been hurt by an application for assistance from the Alms-House; as they are, by this charity, attended, free of any expense, by an able Physician, either at their own houses, or at the Dispensary, as the case may require, and furnished with whatever medicine they may need, and with wine, if necessary.

“ An Act enabling Proprietors of Aqueducts to manage the same.” This Act provides such ample powers and regulations for these Associations, as to render special Acts of Incorporation unnecessary. It is therefore probable, that they have been so greatly multiplied, as to be too numerous for this publication, if they could be easily obtained.

CONVENTION

Of the CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

THEIR Meeting is held in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May (or day of Election) annually; and on the following day at noon, after transacting the usual business of Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent widows of deceased Clergy men.

The Convention is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, and vested with no particular authority or control over the Churches. They have opened a friendly correspondence with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the Middle and Southern States, and with the representative bodies of the Congregational Ministers in Connecticut, New-Hampshire and Vermont, for the purposes of communicating and receiving from them whatever may tend to promote the common interest of Christianity.

A Standing Committee of Convention have been appointed for the purpose of certifying the good character and qualifications of Ministers and Candidates who may travel into other States; and an agreement has been entered into between the Convention and the other representative bodies of Ministers in other States, mutually to communicate the names of their Committees for this purpose. Every certificate must be signed by one gentleman at least of that Committee, from whose bounds the person recommended travels.

The Committee in MASSACHUSETTS consists of the following Gentlemen—viz.

Rev.	Rev.
Joseph Willard, D.D., LL.D. President of Harvard University, Cambridge	Jed. Morse, D.D. Charlestown
Steph. West, D.D. Stockbridge	Jason Haven, Dedham
Seth Swift, Williamstown	Ezra Weld, Braintree
J. Lathrop, D.D. W. Springf.	John Reed, Bridgewater
Joseph Lyman, Hatfield	Perez Fobes, LL.D. Raynham
Roger Newton, Greenfield	Saml. West, D.D. N. Bedford
Caleb Alexander, Mendon	Zephaniah Willis, Kingston
John Cushing, Ashburnham	Jonathan French, Andover
Ezra Ripley, Concord	Thomas Barnard, D.D. Salem
Daniel Chaplin, Groton	Samuel Spring, Newburyport
Peter Thacher, D.D. Boston	Samuel Deane, D.D. Portland
John Lathrop, D.D. ditto	M. Hemmenway, D.D. Wells
	Daniel Little, ditto
	Alden Bradford, Pownalboro'

The Convention “earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen, who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity, which improved and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.”

The Congregational Ministers throughout the Commonwealth, with some exceptions, are associated, and have regular and stated meetings for fellowship and mutual improvement. The Convention have passed a vote, requesting the Moderator or Scribe of the several Associations throughout the Commonwealth, to forward to the Scribe of the Convention, a correct list of the members of their respective Associations, with the name of the Scribe of each, and of the Candidates licensed by them; and have directed that the Scribe of the Convention procure the insertion of the several lists in the Massachusetts Register.

The Convention, solicitous to collect and preserve accurate documents for a History of their Churches, have passed a vote, that each of the Congregational Ministers in Massachusetts be requested to compile a history of his own Church, and of those in his vicinity which may happen to be vacant, and to make returns to the Scribe of the Convention. It is hoped, this important request will not pass unnoticed, but be productive of great good.

Summary of the Method of Treatment, to be used with Persons apparently dead from Drowning, &c.

CONVEY the person to the nearest convenient house, with his head raised: Strip and dry him as quick as possible; clean the mouth and nostrils from froth and mud—If a child, let him be placed between two persons, naked, in a hot bed—If an adult, lay him on a hot blanket or bed, and, in cold weather, near a fire—in warm weather, the air should be freely admitted into the room. The body is next to be gently rubbed with warm woollen cloths, sprinkled with spirits, if at hand, otherwise dry. A heated warming-pan may be now lightly moved over the back, properly covered with a blanket; and the body, if of a child, is to be gently shook every few minutes: Whilst these means are using, one or two assistants are to be employed in blowing up tobacco-smoke into the fundament, with the instrument provided for the purpose, or a tobacco pipe, if that cannot be had—the bowl filled with tobacco and properly lighted, being covered with a handkerchief, or piece of linen, so as to defend the mouth of the assistant in blowing: Bathe the breast with hot rum, and persist in the use of these means for several hours. If no signs of life should then appear, let the body be kept warm several hours longer, with hot bricks, or vessels of hot water, applied to the palms of the hands, and soles of the feet, for a longer or shorter time, as the circumstances of the case may be.

The too customary method of rolling on a barrel, suspending by the feet, and every other violent mode of agitation, particularly in removing the body from the water, should be most carefully avoided.

The above mentioned method of treatment is to be made use of with vigour for several hours, although no favorable circumstances should arise; for it is a vulgar and dangerous opinion, to suppose persons are irrecoverable, because life does not soon make its appearance; and upon this opinion, an immense number of the seemingly dead have been committed to the grave, who might have been restored to life by resolution and perseverance in the above plan of treatment.

That no document, of landing Merchandize in a foreign port, entitled to a drawback, can be received, however regular, after the bond becomes due, unless satisfactory reasons are assigned for the delay.

That the exporter of all salted provisions and pickled fish, entitled to bounty, cannot claim it, unless the evidence of the delivery of the fish and provisions, in a foreign port, is tendered before his bond, given at the time of exportation, becomes due, excepting in those cases where satisfactory reasons are assigned for the delay, or a farther time granted by the Comptroller for obtaining evidence of the landing of the provisions or fish, in a foreign port.

That no debenture can be issued on the exportation of merchandize, unless the exporter shall, within ten days after the clearance of the vessel, complete those papers which the law makes necessary to his being entitled to a drawback.

Should any Merchant in this district be conscious that he has bonds in the Custom-House, now due, given on the exportation of merchandize, or of pickled fish, or salted provisions, he will consider how interesting it is to him to have them cancelled without farther delay.

NOTE ON NANTUCKET SHOALS.

IN several conversations with Coasters and others, who are well acquainted with the navigation round the Cape and Shoals, the following project has been proposed for their opinion.

Do you think it possible to raise an Island on one of the Shoals? (By what means?) By casting some thousands (or millions) of lighter loads of Stone, or by sinking HULKS or BOXES filled with stones, on that Shoal, which shall be found most eligible for the experiment, and raise such a foundation, as to build thereon an Island, sufficient to erect a CONDER or some kind of monument, which may be of use to all vessels, especially Strangers, in so critical a navigation. The answer was in favour of the proposition, and that called the Great Round Shoal, was mentioned as the most suitable. On this Shoal, there are about four feet of water in common tides.

If such an experiment should be made, why may we not at least expect, somewhat may be performed, equal to, if not more than that, so benevolently done by the patriotic William Lord of Stonington Point?

Who can tell but that with Nature and Art, joined to experience, and perseverance, we may yet see an Island, (perhaps a Light-House) rising amidst the roaring of the SEA, and defying its storms, stand a friendly and faithful WATCHMAN, to warn the Mariner of his latitude and his danger? Whether the CANAL through the Cape is opened or not, this object ought not to be relinquished for any reason, less than a natural and absolute impossibility, as it will be scarcely, if at all, the less necessary, if the Canal should be effected. When we consider what has been done in other places, particularly in sinking the Cones or Piers, at Cherbourg in France, we ought not to be easily discouraged.

Of the expense nothing is said, because I am totally incompetent to form the estimate, and if I were, it appears to me, the amount ought not to be a consideration. Our only concern therefore, should be concerning its practicability, and its execution. The commercial resources, and the vast and rapidly increasing ability of our country, is equal to the enterprize.

To decide fairly what degree of attention the project deserves, it should be examined and weighed by men, whose mature judgment will enable them, "to distinguish between difficulties and impossibilities," and whose genius, manner of life, and experience, lead them to speculation and practice, in subjects of this nature. If it is admitted that the plan is within human ability to perform, then let those who can, hesitate between HUMANITY and an inordinate self-love—between DUTY and the calculations of interest—between Dollars and the LIVES of MEN. Religion robed in the heavenly attire of CHARITY commands it, and, pointing to both the Canal, and the Island, says, “This ought ye to have done, and not leave the other undone.” W.

THE Subscribers gratefully acknowledge the assistance they have received from Gentlemen in various parts of the State, and respectfully ask a continuance of their favours. They also request that future Communications may be made as early as the 1st of September; and as in many instances the information received from Gentlemen in the same county has essentially varied, they request that no alterations may be made where there is any doubt of accuracy. In presenting this number of the Register to the Public, they have to solicit their candor, as they have experienced disadvantages which in future they will be able to avoid. They are forming correspondences with Gentlemen in various parts of this State, and at the seat of General Government, which they flatter themselves will enable them to make the future numbers more deserving of public patronage.

JOHN WEST.

MANNING & LORING.
